ORDER

On November 5, 2007, the Board received from Mr. Ferguson a notice of appeal concerning a contracting officer's decision dated August 2, 2007. In the decision, the contracting officer confirmed earlier correspondence that deemed Mr. Ferguson to be in default and liable for liquidated damages because of failure to pay for and remove a vehicle purchased during an on-line auction held by the respondent, the General Services Administration (Government). Mr. Ferguson maintains that he did not bid on the vehicle. He seeks to have the default voided and his record cleared.

After an initial conference with the Board, and the submission of an appeal file, the parties exchanged information and engaged in discussions. On April 3, 2008, the Board received a joint stipulation of dismissal, in which the parties request a dismissal with prejudice, having settled the dispute.

Accordingly, the Board DISMISSES WITH PREJUDICE this appeal.

JOSEPH A. VERGILIO
Board Judge
