

UNITED STATES
CIVILIAN BOARD OF CONTRACT APPEALS

DISMISSED FOR FAILURE TO PROSECUTE: February 17, 2012

CBCA 2631

LAWRENCE JACKSON,

Appellant,

v.

GENERAL SERVICES ADMINISTRATION,

Respondent.

Lawrence Jackson, pro se, Chesterton, IN.

Scott F. McCleary, Office of Regional Counsel, General Services Administration, Chicago, IL, counsel for Respondent.

Before Board Judges STERN, POLLACK, and GOODMAN.

GOODMAN, Board Judge.

Appellant filed this appeal from a contracting officer's decision denying his claim for a refund of $325, which was withheld from appellant when he failed to remove an item that he had purchased at a General Services Administration auction.

Appellant's complaint, or designation of his notice of appeal as a complaint, was due on December 28, 2011. The Board unilaterally extended this date twice with no response from appellant on or before the dates specified. Thereafter, appellant was ordered to show cause no later than Friday, February 10, 2012, as to why the Board should not dismiss this appeal for failure to prosecute. The order to show cause advised that if no response was received, the appeal would be dismissed with prejudice.

Appellant has not responded to the order to show cause.

Decision
