On April 28, 2013, appellant filed an appeal in this case contending that he was entitled to a monetary recovery and the cancellation of his contract with the Forest Service because the timber estimates provided were incorrect. On March 7, 2014, the Board received from the parties a joint motion to dismiss. The motion indicated that all outstanding issues between the parties had been resolved and requested that the matter be dismissed with prejudice. Accordingly, this case is DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE.
