In the Matter of TIMOTHY D. FALVEY

Timothy D. Falvey, Charleston, SC, Claimant.

Robert T. Macdonald, Managing Director, Financial Policy Reporting and Analysis,
Department of State, Washington, DC, appearing for Department of State.

DANIELS, Board Judge (Chairman).

Through these two cases, Timothy D. Falvey and the Department of State sought resolution of three matters relating to Mr. Falvey's transfer from Ohio to South Carolina. The matters involved two items Mr. Falvey paid to a lessor as part of the cost of temporary housing (fees for a background check and acceptance of a short-term rental), as well as a third item, expenses of transportation to an airport. Upon further review, the agency has determined that the fees paid to the lessor are properly reimbursed as part of temporary quarters subsistence expenses and that the transportation expenses are also reimbursable. The amounts in question have been paid to Mr. Falvey, and he has asked that the cases be closed. Accordingly, the cases are dismissed.
