

UNITED STATES
CIVILIAN BOARD OF CONTRACT APPEALS

October 8, 2014

CBCA 3687-RELO

In the Matter of ANNA M. SANTANA

Anna M. Santana, APO Area Europe, Claimant.

Deborah Muldoon, Office of the Staff Judge Advocate, Scott Air Force Base, IL, appearing for Department of the Army.

SHERIDAN, Board Judge.

Pursuant to Board Rule 407 (48 CFR 6104.407 (2014)), claimant requests that this Board reconsider its decision issued on July 9, 2014, denying her claim for expenses which she alleged were incurred during a permanent change of station. We denied the claim, finding that claimant had requested and received the maximum number of days allowance granted by statute and regulation for storage in transit (SIT) and temporary quarters subsistence allowance (TQSA). In her request for reconsideration, claimant has pointed to alleged "erroneous 'facts' presented by the agency in their response," reargued the merits of her claim, and presented new arguments not made in her original claim. Claimant has not presented sufficient grounds for reconsideration. Nevertheless, on October 6, 2014, the agency reconfirmed that claimant received the maximum number of days allowance granted by statute and regulation for SIT (180 days) and TQSA (150 days).

Accordingly, claimant's request for reconsideration is denied.
